CBD Holiday Connect for Our College-Aged Young Adults

It's not too late to enroll your college-aged child or grandchild in CBD Holiday Connect - CBD Women's holiday package program. We will send at least three holiday packages to enrolled young adults ages 18-25-ish who are in college (at home or away), as well as those just starting out on their own. We want to let our young adults know that, although they may be out of sight, they are never far from our hearts.

Enrollment in the program is required. Please download a registration form at www.beth-david.org/holiday-connect and mail it to CBD attn.: Holiday Connect or drop it by the CBD office. You can also scan the form and email it to CBD.Holidayconnect@beth-david.org. A voluntary contribution of $48 is requested to offset the cost of the program (the updated estimated cost per child is $75 for the year). Of course, you may increase your contribution to help cover additional costs. Contributions can be made via check (made out to CBD Sisterhood) or billed to your CBD account.

Winter Coat Drive

Cold weather is approaching, and CBD Social Action is gearing up for the annual winter coat drive. Please set your gently used coats aside and look for drop off details in upcoming bulletins. (Do not bring to Beth David yet.)

Hazak Presents

An Evening with Rabbi Jaymee Alpert

Learn about her rabbinic journey and her thoughts for Beth David's future.

Sunday, November 11, 7:00 – 9:00 p.m.

From a very early age Rabbi Alpert knew that she wanted to be a rabbi. She was not clear how she'd achieve this vision but only knew she eventually would. Rabbi Alpert will relate some of the experiences she had while attending JTS that were particularly formative in shaping her rabbinic thinking. Over the last few years, she has been exploring the connection between physical movement and prayer & spirituality.

Rabbi Alpert will also share her thoughts about Beth David's future and programs she'd like to pursue. Hazak members will have the opportunity to express their vision for Beth David's future.
