

Addendum to Membership Policy:
Children to Individual Membership Transition

Approved by Board of Directors, July 24, 2019

Beth David will offer a solicitation-free one-year Individual Membership to children of congregation members who reach the age of 26, assuming the children otherwise conform to the requirements of the Bylaws and following the process defined in the Bylaws. Solicitation-free means that no donations will be requested from such new members for the first year, including sustaining contributions, annual campaign, etc.
